

Curb bump outs are curb extensions at intersections of pedestrian crossings. A bump out will narrow the roadway and better define pedestrian crossings.

Bump outs have proven to reduce speed and calm traffic. The distance for a pedestrian crossing the road is lessened, benefiting school children crossing the intersection.